PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

NOBLE ODD FELLOWS

GREAT PREPARATIONS FOR THE MEETING IN SEDALIA.

The Largest Crowd Ever in This City Expected--The Programme--Prominent Men.

Sedalia has thrown her doors to the Odd Fellows that are now filling the city. The sun came out bright and balmy this morning and the clouds that had made everybody blue for so many days got ashamed of themselves and hid behind the horizon.

The I. O. O. F. is a noble order and its ranks are filled with men who are noted for their charity, benevolence and all those qualities that make people honored and admired.

Should the present fair weather continue, between 5,000 and 7,000 people are expected to be in attendance. It will undoubtedly be the largest gathering ever in Sedalia. There are about 470 subordinate lodges in the state, nearly 90 encampments and 100 orders of the Daughters of Rebekka. The hotels have put on a decidedly lively appearance. Husbands, mothers, daughters, brothers, sweethearts and aunts are everywhere. Our elegant stores, fine buildings and beautiful homes are being thoroughly admired.

The crack cantons of the state will be in attendance, including the prize-winning canton from Joplin. At the urgent request of the grand lodge and visiting members of the I. O. O. F. fraternity, the famous Trenton, Mo., degree staff has been telegraphed for to exemplify the floor work of the subordinate lodge degrees on Wednesday evening, May 17, at Armory hall.

Sedalia Canton has made a great effort for the occasion and will look resplendent in their brand new uniforms with S. T. Lupe in command.

The programme to-morrow is as follows:

To-Morrow.

The morning will be taken up by receiving the cantons that arrive on the incoming trains.

At 2 o'clock the parade will commence. Positions as yet have not been assigned as the exact number and names of visiting cantons and lodges is not known. The line will be formed on Fifth with right of column resting on Lamine. The line of march will be from the court house north on Lamine to Main street, west to Ohio street, south Ohio to Broadway, thence west to Grand avenue, thence north to Third street, thence west to the park.

On arriving at the park, a competitive drill will take place, followed by a dress parade, with Col. R. M. Abercrombie acting as colonel, and Capt. R. A. Spears, of Springfield, as adjutant.

Lodges and encampments will be assigned their places in procession by R. H. Moses, chairman committee on parade.

Henry Lamm, grand marshal, assisted by two aids, will have charge of lodges and encampments in line of parade.

Major-Gen. Sloan and Brigadier-Gen. Cadle, assisted by their staffs, will have charge of Cantons and Patriarchs Militant.

Prize drill, under command of Brig.-Gen. Cadle, will take place upon arrival at fair ground and in front of grand stand. Admission free to all.

The judges for the competitive drill will be Col. S. B. Hayman, U. S. A. (retired), of Houstonia, Maj. F. W. Fleming, Third Reg., N. G. M., Kansas City, Capt. C. E. Wagner, Co. K. Third Reg., N. G. M., Kansas City.

To-Morrow Night.

The programme for the reception at Wood's opera house will be: Opening prayer by Chaplain J. F. Cowan.

Opening ode, accompanied by the Sedalia Military band.

Address of welcome, by Chas. E. Yeater, acting for the mayor.

Response, by J. B. Jewell, grand master, and Mrs. J. L. Hafford, president of Rebekkah convention.

Selection by Military band.

Address, by W. F. Maring, deputy grand master.

Vocal selection, by Geo. C. Hoffman.

Address, by T. P. Rixey, grand lecturer.

Closing ode, accompanied by Military band.

Notes.

S. T. Lupe has been appointed captain on the staff of Brigadier General Henry Cadle.

The exercises at the opera house will be public and a general invitation is extended to all.

Grand Secretary E. M. Sloan was born at Ottumwa. He is now a resident of St. Louis.

S. T. Lupe, of this city was appointed captain of Brig. Gen. Cadle's staff this morning.

All the grand officers arrived last night and this morning except the grand master, who is expected from the north at 5:55.

The encampment I. O. O. F. has headquarters at Kaiser's while the Daughters of Rebekkah, grand lodge and Patriarch's militant are stopping at Sicher's.

Cols. T. T. Parsons, of St. Louis, chief of Maj. Sloan's staff and T. P. Rixey, grand lecturer for the state of Missouri, also chief of Gen. Cadle's staff, arrived last night and are guests at Sicher's.

The Daughters of Rebekkah met in the circuit court room at 2:30 this afternoon, in secret session. The Grand lodge meets at 9 o'clock in the morning in the criminal court room.

Mrs. J. H. Hafford, of Marionville, president of the state convention of Rebekkah lodge, Mrs. L. U. DeBolt past president, and Mrs. Margaret Hesser, secretary of the state convention are stopping at Sicher's.

H. S. Carnes, of Trenton, Mo., is the present republican recorder of Grundy county. He is the noble grand of Trenton degree staff, No. 52, which took the prize before the sovereign grand lodge of the United States at Topeka, in 1890, for the most perfect work in the four degrees of the order.

Col. R. M. Allen, of St. Joseph, has been an Odd Fellow for 15 years and has been connected with the grand lodge for nine years successively and with the military branch of the order ever since its institution. He now holds the position of acting grand marshal of grand lodge and grand encampment.

The prizes to be offered are: $200 cash to the best drilled Missouri canton; $150 cash to the second best drilled Missouri canton; $135 organ to the largest and best uniformed lodge; $50 cash, largest and best uniformed encampment; $100 cash, best drilled degree corps, floor work; $50 cash, best drilled Rebekkah degree staff, floor work.

The following invitation was issued from the local bureau this morning and was accepted:

To the chairman of the county court:—Yourself and associates, together with all county officers, are invited to join in the parade of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., and be present at the exercises at Association park to-morrow. J. W. Truxel, secretary.

Brigadier General Henry Cadle is a prominent lumberman of Bethany, Mo., and is one of the handsomest and most military looking men attending the encampment. He has been connected with the order for 19 years and has held the exalted position of past grand master. He is now first brigadier general commanding the department of Missouri. He has charge of the parade and with his staff will review the same to-morrow.

Past Grand Masters E. Wilkinson, of St. Louis, D. A. Smith, Sarcouxie, Gen. Henry Cadle who is also commander of the department of Missouri, Patriarchs Militant, Col. R. M. Abercrombie, of St. Joe, who is commander of the first regiment, Patriarchs Militant of Missouri, Maj. E. M. Sloan, commander division of Mississippi Patriarchs Militant which includes Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Kansas, Texas, New Mexico and the Indian territory, and several other past grand officers have already arrived.

Justice Court.

Justice Fisher had Robt. Davidson and Lou McBath alias Eva Riddle, up on the charge of adultery. Their case was continued until 2 p. m. Thursday, May 19th.

NIANGUA CLUB.

ANOTHER SOCIETY FOR THE PROSPERITY OF SEDALIA.

A Club of Two Hundred Members to Erect a $30,000 Building--Objects of the Society.

The court to-day granted papers of incorporation to the Niangua club, one of the most promising movements ever begun in Sedalia.

The society takes its charter under article X, chapter 42, of the revised statutes of Missouri for 1889. Its object is "to promote literature, history, science and intellectual culture in all its branches, and to maintain a library, art gallery, and museum, to promote fraternal social relation, and to discuss and encourage all business enterprises that may have a tendency to build up and add to the prosperity of the city of Sedalia.

The society should have existence and continue fifty years. The number of trustees should be fifteen persons holding perpetual membership, and for the first year should be composed of O. A. Crandall, R. A. Blair, Henry Lamm, W. L. Porter, W. H. Powell, jr., W. C. Overstreet, J. W. Trader, F. A. Sampson, C. E. Ilgenfritz, Wm. Courtney, R. H. Moses, Chris. Hye, John Cashman, George P. B. Jackson and J. B. Quigley.

The officers are O. A. Crandall, president; F. A. Sampson, secretary, and W. H. Powell, jr., treasurer.

The petition is signed by about fifty gentlemen, and it is the intention to increase it to 200, which will be done shortly. The petition has been out but a short time, but it was thought advisable to present the matter to the court with a few names rather than lose time in getting it.

ting the desired number and wait until next term of court.

The society has no capital stock, but for the purpose of enabling it to provide means to purchase ground and erect a building suitable to serve the purpose and accomplish the objects specified, it may sell two hundred perpetual memberships, at $100 each, and may levy such monthly dues upon its members, and sell such number of annual memberships as may be fixed by the by-laws.

The club is modeled after the well-known Commercial Club of Fort Worth, Texas. It intends to erect a building costing in the neighborhood of $30,000. Handsome and substantial quarters will be fitted up and the club made one of the finest in the country.

WEARERS OF THE BLUE.

Members of the Ed. Murphy Club Hold Their Semi-Annual Convention.

Less than one year ago Ed. Murphy, one of the leading temperance advocates of the country, and a man of actions rather than words, appeared in Sedalia and inaugurated a club for the benefit of temperance. The cause from the very outset became popular, until after a brief existence of little more than an half year, the list of those who donned the badge of honor went away up into the hundreds.

The object of the club thus instituted is not only to promote fraternity and rescue those addicted to the liquor habit, but also to enlist those not guilty of the indulgence.

As an earnest of appreciation felt for the noble philanthropist, the society thus set on foot by him was named in honor of Mr. Murphy.

Last night came the time for a semi-annual reunion held for the purpose of calling the forces together and to review the work accomplished. The exercises were held at the Methodist Episcopal church and lasted two hours.

A well selected choir rendered delightful music for the occasion. After several songs, Rev. Cronce read a passage of scripture from the 23rd chapter of Proverbs, in which Solomon cautions the young against tarrying about the wine cup.

Speeches were made by L. C. Gunn, who stated that he drank 25 years and that he had seen more cases of intemperance in Kansas in one week than he had seen in Sedalia in six months; J. Morgan Brown who made quite a clever little talk which was well received; Mr. Jenkins, who stated that he had never tasted liquor; Dr. Mills, who also made a good speech; and last, but not least, John Henry Summers, who, by reason of his wonderful will power already vindicated, made the most effective speech of all.

Following a splendid solo by Mrs. Rev. Boller the meeting adjourned, when an opportunity was extended those desiring to identify themselves with the good cause.

GOODY, HERE COMES

The EVENING DEMOCRAT.

"I would earnestly advise them for their served up and to be looked upon as a part of the tea equipage."—ADDISON.

"FARMER" DICK DALTON carried Macon county on Saturday.

SENATOR VEST contributes to the Republic an interesting chapter on Warner's political history.

NEITHER Judge Field nor Judge Ryland have any opposition for the democratic nomination. In both cases, too, the nomination means an election.

The only thing that can present Cleveland's nomination for president is the fears of the southern and western democrats that he cannot carry New York.

JUDGING from the editorials in the Sunday Mirror, there is still some jealousy and bad feeling among St.
Louis democrats in spite of the generous action of the county democrats.

THE Fifth district democratic convention declared for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.
Every democratic congressional convention in the state should do likewise.

THE annual meeting of the Missouri Press association has been postponed until August 24th. The meeting will be held at Excelsior Springs and business of importance will be transacted.

AN EXCHANGE says: "With the right kind of a platform, Rhode Island will be safely democratic."
The DEMOCRAT is inclined to believe that Rhode Island is safely democratic only with the wrong kind of a platform.

THE board of managers of the Fulton asylum has decided that Dr.
Atwood must step down and out.
However charitable the view that is taken of his actions, the conviction is irresistible that he is unfit for the position he held.

THE free silver coinage bill will come up in congress as an amendment to the civil bill. The restoration of silver to its place in the currency was one of the important issues upon which the democrats swept the country in 1890.

THE Gazette having led its political party to defeat in its desperate effort to secure the city printing, is now trying to harness up the printer's union to do its dirty work. Editor Streit will hardly succeed in deceiv-ing intelligent working men. His intentions are bad enough, but he is a bungler from Bunglersville, as was shown in the city campaign.

EDITOR STREIT is busy trying to use Ellis Smith to pull its county county printing chestnut out of the fire. From remarks tactless said to have been made, it seems that the Gazette is republican for official printing largely. If this be true it wants a finer worker than Editor Streit to manipulate the wires. Having handsomely defeated its party in the city campaign, all its pawing of earth is simply digging a grave for Ellis.

SALINE FOR YEATER.

The primaries of Saline county on last Saturday resulted in a sweeping victory for Hon. Charles E. Yeater.

The fair-minded democrats of Saline acknowledged from the commencement of the campaign that the nomination for senator belonged, in all courtesy and fairness, to Pettis, provided of course that this county gave its endorsement to an unob-jectional man.

The more the people of Saline saw of Mr. Yeater the better they liked him, and when Pettis county gave him her endorsement the good people of Saline rallied to his support as loyally as if he had been a Saline county man.

The DEMOCRAT predicts that they will never regret their action of last Saturday.

Mr. Yeater is in every way worthy to represent the best senatorial district in the state. He has the ability, the energy and the integrity to make a model senator, and though young in years, he will rank among the ablest members of that body.

It is amusing to see zealous newspaper supporters of various candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination using the argument that their particular favorite is the only candidate Warner fears.
The fact is Warner never had the least idea of being elected; the convention which nominated him and every intelligent republican in the state knew when he was put up that he was certain to be defeated.
Either Stone, Dalton, Yeaman, Gibson or Claycomb will easily beat Warner.

SALINE county, so far as heard from, has instructed in her township meetings for Hon. John T.
Heard for congress. No representative was ever more popular than Mr. Heard, and it is gratifying to see that his popularity grows with his usefulness.

The rumor that Cleveland is to withdraw from the presidential contest and help Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, to get the nomination is absurd. Campbell failed to carry his own state at the last election, and is in every way a weaker candidate than Cleveland.

WILL GO TO THE PEN.

John Hollam Steals a Horse in Johnson County and is Captured Here.

On May 7th a stranger, John Hollam by name, appeared in Johnson county and began work on the farm of T. A. Wallace. He was a good hand, conducted himself very properly, and for these reasons in-gratiated himself in the heart of his employer, who congratulated himself on securing the services of such an efficient laborer.

On Friday morning, however, things took a curious turn. Hollam went to a neighbor's and borrowed his horse, saying that he was going to Warrensburg on a short trip. But he did not go to Warrensburg, as was later on developed, but Knob Noster was his destination.

Reaching this point Hollam sold the horse, purchased a new suit of clothes and skipped the country.

In the meantime the owner of the horse suspected something was wrong by the delay, and set out in pursuit. Arriving at Knob Noster the officers were advised, and knowing that Hollam had boarded a freight headed for Sedalia, telegraphed Sheriff Smith to be on the look-out. The thief was accordingly captured and lodged in jail Saturday evening, where he was held till the arrival of Marshal Morrison of Warrensburg, when he was taken back to Johnson county.

Hollam's chances for serving a pen sentence are most flattering.

Poultry Association.

F. H. Pettis, editor of Poultry Topics, Warsaw, Mo., has issued a call for a convention of the poultry raisers of the state to meet in Sedalia on May 20. It is proposed to have a thorough organization in the state. Five hundred people are expected to be present.

Every one who is interested in the advancement of the poultry industry is cordially and earnestly invited to be present. The formation of such an association means better prices for poultry and eggs in the future.

WARNER AND VEST.

Some Interesting Reminiscences of the "Poor Old Missouri" Past.

From The Republic.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—In glorifying their candidate for governor, the republican papers of Missouri are publishing a campaign story headed "Warner and Vest," in which I am represented as attempting to bully Major Warner in the trial of a murder case at Sedalia, when Warner was acting as circuit attorney, twenty-two years ago.

The whole thing is pure fiction.
I never had an unpleasant word with Major Warner at any time or place, and he never prosecuted any client of mine for murder at Sedalia.

I did have a personal difficulty with Horace B. Johnson, then circuit attorney and afterwards attorney-general, in the court house at Sedalia, but this occurred before Warner held the office of circuit attorney.

The allusion to Major Warner's career as circuit attorney will not help his non-partisan canvass for Governor. It will remind the people of Missouri that Major Warner drew the fees of an office which belonged to another man, and which the supreme court of Missouri declared he had no right to appropriate.

At the election of 1868 in Missouri, General James H. Shields was elected to congress, Wm. T.
Wood, now living at Lexington, circuit judge, and Judge Noland, of Jackson county, circuit attorney.

The republican candidates for these offices were R. T. Van Horn, Chas. P. Townsley and William Warner. In order to give the certificates to his party friends, Count Rodman, secretary of state, destroyed the returns from Jackson county which had given a large democratic majority, and by this means the men honestly elected were defrauded of their right.

Fortunately for the cause of justice, Ezra Hickman, County Clerk of Jackson County, had made a duplicate copy of the Jackson County vote, and afterwards in the quo warrant case of Wood vs Townsley before the State Supreme Court a judgement was rendered that Van Horn, Townsley and Warner were never elected.

Van Horn drew the salary for two years as Congressman, and Warner received his pay as Circuit Attorney for about the same time, when he resigned. Townsley, after appropriating Judge Wood's salary for about three years, was ousted by the Supreme Court.

It will be well for Democrats to recall these historic facts during the coming canvass, and especially when Major Warner softly and gently smooths down the ruffled past in order to get the Democratic votes.

G. G. VEST.

FOUND HIS WATCH.

How a Smooth Professional Man Was Outwitted by an Amateur.

Sedalians who have felt more or less trepidation because of men who came to their houses without invitation might get some valuable suggestions from the experience of a gentleman who recently found a stranger ascending his staircase, who, without betraying any emotion, said he had come about repairs.
"Oh, yes," replied the owner, "but I am in a hurry to keep an engagement, just now. Come out with me, and I'll tell you what I want done." The two walked out together, the householder talking about water tanks, and the stranger answered with a glibness that showed considerable experience, until they came to a policeman, when the former at once gave the pretended plumber into his custody for being in his house with unlawful intent. Upon him were found the usual instruments of the burglar's business, and when taken to the police station he was soon identified as an expert crib cracker, who was already wanted on several charges of housebreaking and burglary. People will do well to view with suspicion men who come to their dwellings to do repairs which have never been ordered.

THE COLOR LINE.

A Young Missourian Draws it at Yale College.

A young Missourian named Wilfey, whose home is at Mexico, has created a sensation in Yale college by refusal to debate with a negro student. Wilfey is the highest man in his class and the proposed debate is for the Wayland medal. Wilfey's friends have issued an address in which they say:

"It does not seem to occur to New England people that there is a marked distinction in the south between a colored man and a white one; that the races move in entirely separate social spheres and are educated in separate schools.

"The social status of the white is not confined in the drawing room.
It extends to the church and the school. The social line is drawn no more severely than in the home of abolition; it is only drawn in another place. In the case of the young man from Missouri, the circumstances are no different from those of any young man who was born and bred in the south. He is a man of principle and moral courage.

"He is not willing to stultify himself by engaging in a contest that he would not engage in his own home and in the presence of his family and friends. Any other course would show lack of moral standing."

Spurgeon said yesterday: "I have been in the law school for two years. Wilfey has been here only one. I have always been present at the meetings of the Kent club and have taken part in the debates and have been well received, with one exception. That was last year, when I was appointed to debate against R. Miller of the class of '91.
I cannot see any reason why I should not be allowed to debate for the prize. I shall prepare my speech and deliver it."

Serious Situation.

"I have just 1,160 acres of land, all under cultivation, in imminent danger of being submerged," remarked President Quigley, of the Sedalia Water works company to a DEMOCRAT reporter this morning.
"The property is in East St. Louis," he continued, "and has already been damaged to the extent of fully $5,000. This however, will be insignificant compared to the loss I will entail in case my apprehensions of an overflow should be confirmed.
The land can stand just a few more inches of water. Should the river continue to rise much higher it will all be flooded and as a consequence my agricultural prospects destroyed."

THE KAW CALMER.

Same Report in Regard to the Missouri.

ANOTHER RISE IS THREATENED.

South of St. Louis the Average Width of the Mississippi For Some Distance Is Ten Miles—The Situation Considered a Serious One.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 16.—The Kaw began to fall Saturday night. It kept on going down all day yesterday with the rapidity characteristic of that eccentric stream. The panic of moving household goods has died away in Argentine and Armourdale. The total fall of the water up to last night was very nearly four feet. As for the Missouri, it is sinking very slowly and with constant threat of another rise. Yesterday morning the gauge showed 23.1 feet, a fall of a tenth of a foot during the night. At 7:30 p. m. the reading was 22.8 feet. But as the sun went down the river was full of drift—more so than for several days. This to the river men means a rise in the water.

Harlem, the only point touched by flood water from the Missouri, is still exceedingly moist, but the people have ceased to move out, confident that there is no more danger.

THE MISSISSIPPI.
ST. LOUIS, May 16.—The river here at 10 a. m. measured 34.9 feet and is still rising at the rate of a tenth an hour. On the docks most all perishable matter has been removed, so that in the city proper but little more damage can be done, except such as naturally is occasioned by flooded basements, etc.

A reporter for the Associated press took a trip down the river for about forty miles yesterday. The situation viewed from the pilot house of the steamer is one which at first glance is seen to be most serious. Thousands of acres on which a week ago the waving wheat was growing, making a rich carpet of green, are now vast lakes of water, whose surface is broken by floating pieces of furniture, dwellings and here and there dead bodies of horses and hogs. From bluff to bluff this is the unbroken monotony that greets the eye. Ten miles is the average width of the river as far down as the steamer proceeded. Hundreds of homes have been abandoned and the number of cattle destroyed is expected to reach into the thousands. At Monte Sano and Rock Bridge a number of rafts were seen transporting household goods to places of safety. Below Smith Point on a piece on the river over a hundred cattle were overtaken and drowned. Near Bend on the Missouri side in the vicinity of the White House is the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railway track. The embankment, which is dealt vigorous blows by the rapidly flowing current, has in many places been undermined and no trains have been run over the tracks for thirty-six hours.

Untold damage will be suffered by the railroad company at this point alone. Up the Merimac river the back water has undermined the foundations of over a hundred homes.

Two St. Louis peddlers were drowned, it is stated, early yesterday morning there, but their names could not be ascertained.

At Foster's island 4,000 acres of fine farming land are covered with two feet of water and all hope of raising a crop this year has been given up.

A PENITENTIARY RAIDED.

The One at Little Rock, Ark., Broken Into by a Mob and a Negro Charged With Assaulting a Five-Year-Old Girl Taken Therefrom, Hanged and His Body Riddled With Bullets.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 16.—The boldest raid of vigilantes on record is that which was chronicled here Saturday morning, a mob attacking and entering the state penitentiary and dragging forth a negro brute who was then taken to the center of the town and hanged and riddled with bullets. Wednesday Henry Jones, a negro, 22 years of age, brutally assaulted the adopted daughter, aged 5 years, of Charles Johnson and then fled. Yesterday the wretch was arrested and placed in jail.

Late in the afternoon a mob was organized, but the prisoner was removed just in time to the penitentiary. About midnight a second mob formed and at 1:15 o'clock this morning 1,000 men armed with Winchester and revolvers demanded admittance to the penitentiary. The authorities refused to let the mob in, but admitted that the prisoner had been taken by them for safe keeping and declared that they would turn him over to the sheriff at 8 o'clock this morning.

The mob with sledge hammers then broke open the great iron gates, entered the penitentiary and, having secured the prisoner, started with him to Johnson's house, some distance away where Johnson identified him.

The mob grew in number to an immense throng as it then marched to Fifth and Main streets, in the heart of the city, opposite the Masonic temple.

There the wretch was given several minutes to pray and confess. He at first denied his guilt, but finally admitted it. A rope was then thrown across the cross-arm of a large telegraph pole and Jones was soon swinging in midair and was riddled by hundreds of bullets.

The National People's Party.
OMAHA, Neb., May 16.—The national executive committee of the people's party have promulgated the following official orders and programme for the national convention of that party to be held in this city July 4: "Owing to the desire to make nominations on July 4, all delegates will meet for temporary organization at the Coliseum building, Omaha, Neb., July 2, at 10 o'clock a. m."

Cursed God and Was Killed.
MILAN, Tenn., May 16.—Wash Tompkins, colored, while sitting in his cabin was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The negro a few minutes before had been cursing God for the bad weather and poor crops.

DEMISE OF SENATOR BARBOUR.

The House Adjourned Saturday in Respect to His Memory—To Be Buried at Poplar Grove, Md.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Barbour of Virginia, died suddenly at his home Saturday morning at 6 o'clock of heart failure. He occupied his seat in the senate Friday and was apparently as well as usual. In the house Mr. Meredith, of Virginia, announced the death of Senator Barbour, and as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased the house adjourned.

He occupied his seat in the senate Friday afternoon, and after adjournment walked over to his house. There at 6 o'clock, and in company with his sister-in-law, Miss Ellen Daingerfield, and Capt. Harri Shepherd, ex-secretary of the state democratic committee, he dined. After dinner there was a lengthy conversation as to political matters in Virginia, and throughout the entire evening the senator was as bright-witted and seemingly as physically sound as he ever was. At about 10:30 the little conference broke up, the senator going to his room. He wrote two or three letters and retired near 11 o'clock.

It was just 5:15 Saturday morning when Miss Ellen Daingerfield was awakened by the sound of knocking on the door of her chamber. She wanted to know what was the matter and was distressed when the senator said he felt very ill, indeed, and would like to have some one go for a doctor. There was an obstruction in his throat, was the senator's complaint, and as the difficulty in breathing was accompanied by pain he feared an attack of croup. In a little while the entire household was aroused, a messenger ran to the house of Dr. Bayne. Miss Daingerfield went into the senator's room. He was seated on the edge of his bed, his head bowed and evidently suffering much. He was persuaded to lie down, and then almost instantly became unconscious. Capt. Shepherd had been called and he responded with all haste, but before he could reach the bedside the senator died. When Dr. Bayne arrived, which he did very speedily, he said the senator had probably died as soon as he lay down. Services were held in the senate this afternoon and to-morrow the remains will be taken to Poplar Grove, Md., and there interred. Poplar Grove was one of the senator's favorite residence places. His wife is buried there on the estate, and the senator has always, since her death, expressed a desire to be buried by her side.

Senator John S. Barbour was a resident of Alexandria and was born in Culpeper county, Va., December 29, 1820. He pursued a course of study at the university of Virginia for three years, and in 1842 graduated from the law school there. He began to practice in his native county, was elected to the Virginia legislature in 1847 and re-elected for four successive terms. In 1852 he became president of the Orange & Alexandria Railroad Co., and served in that position until it merged into what is now known as the Virginia Midland Railroad Co., of which he was also president till he resigned in 1883.

He was elected to the Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses and to the United States senate in 1888, as a democrat, to succeed Harrison H. Riddleberger, readjuster, taking his seat March 4, 1889. His term would have expired March 3, 1895. He was at one time chairman of the democratic national congressional committee and had long been a prominent factor in Virginia politics. In national politics he has been termed Gorman's right hand man.

Mr. Barbour's successor is expected to be either ex-Gov. Fitzhugh Lee or Congressman O'Ferrall.

Senator Vance Back in Washington.
WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Vance arrived here Saturday morning from his mountain home in Gombroon, N. C., where he was taken sick the middle of last week. Although the senator rode ten miles in a buckboard and spent the night on the cars, he made the trip without serious discomfort. Mrs. Vance, the senator's wife, says she hopes in a few days that her husband will be able to get out again and resume his senatorial duties.

Twelve Horses and Mules Burned.
NEWTON, Kan., May 16.—Pherson's livery barn burned Saturday afternoon, twelve horses and mules perishing in the flames. The buildings were fully insured, but the animals burned and the buggies and harness are a total loss. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Gen. Thomas A. Rowley, who served with distinction in the Mexican war and in the rebellion, was found dead in bed Saturday morning at Pittsburgh, Pa. The deceased was 85 years of age and as active as a man of 40 up to the day of his death.

A traveling menagerie in Hungary was overtaken by a flood recently and wrecked. The proprietor's wife and many beasts were drowned. A tiger and two leopards escaped and appeared at a village fair, where they injured a policeman before they were shot.

A dynamite bomb was exploded at Alby, a city of France.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Collision on the Big Four at Cleves, Ohio.

FIVE PERSONS KNOWN TO BE DEAD.

While Five Are Known to Be Fatally Injured and Three Tramps Are Supposed to Be Under the Wreck—A Wreck on the Norfolk & Western.

CLEVELAND, O., May 16.—In the midst of a terrific storm of wind and rain two Big Four trains crashed into each other here yesterday morning with awful effect, the full horrors of which are not yet known.

The following are known to be dead: Berry Edwards, engineer; William Higgins, engineer; Hiram Bruce, fireman; Philip Gibbons, baggagemaster; William Harwood.

Those known to be fatally injured are: Mrs. Moreland, passenger; Henry Tyrrell, fireman; John Schrader, conductor; George W. Hubert, commercial traveler; Holton Terrell, passenger. Three tramps are supposed to be under the wreck and scarcely a passenger escaped without injury.

Yesterday morning the summer schedule went into effect and orders had been issued accordingly. Freight No. 43, a through train northbound, had orders to stop at North Bend to allow express No. 80, a cannon ball special, to pass. Under the old schedule the trains passed at another point some miles further on.

Instead of stopping the freight engineer pulled ahead and approached Cleves running about twenty miles an hour.

Why he did not stop at North Bend will never be known, as he is dead, but it is thought that in his anxiety over the storm, which might have washed out the bridge he forgot the new schedule and hurried on.

As the train approached Cleves, Charles Smith, the telegraph operator, was shocked for he knew it should have side tracked at South Bend and that the express, a few minutes overdue then, was but a short distance away running forty-five miles an hour to make up lost time. Smith rushed to the signal wires and dashed out danger signals. Either he was not seen in the blinding rain or the engineer could not control his engine, for it sped on by without lessening speed.

At that very moment the express came into sight with the speed of the wind. The iron monsters sprang at and crashed into each other with a roar that rolled above the storm like a clap of thunder. Both engines were battered into shapeless masses and rolled off the track.

The cars behind were smashed into kindling wood and the track for 100 feet was torn up. Telegraph poles were thrown down and it was two or three hours after the wreck before word reached this place and a special train was sent to the scene from Cincinnati. Long before the people from the little villages surrounding had gathered and in the frightful storm were doing all they could.

Many of the wounded had been taken away and the number could not last night be definitely known. It is claimed that some of those provided for are in a dying condition. Not a person on either train escaped uninjured.

With the arrival of the special train the work of getting out the dead began. Up to 6 o'clock five dead bodies had been recovered, four of them shockingly mangled and mashed out of all human shape.

A wrecking party aided by citizens are working with night and main to extricate the bodies that are supposed to be under the mass of debris. There has been all along a faint hope that the dying conductor was mistaken about men being in the smoker. There is no disposition to fix the blame on any one man in advance of the official investigation.

A WRECK IN MARYLAND.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 16.—A serious wreck occurred on the Norfolk & Western road at Mondell's switch, about ten miles south of Hagerstown, Saturday night, in which Capt. Hayes, of Philadelphia, the conductor of the train, lost his life and several others were seriously injured. All of the train except one coach and the sleeper passed the switch safely, when in some way that can not be explained the switch was opened and the rest of the train ran off on to the siding and the smoking car was completely demolished.

Capt. Hayes was thrown against the rocks along the road and killed instantly.

The other persons injured are: John R. Hanke, of Lewistown, Pa., skull fractured. One of his legs was broken and he was internally injured. His recovery is doubtful.

Another young man whose name can not be learned, skull fractured and injured internally; has been unconscious since the occurrence.

Others injured were: B. S. Chaney, cut and bruised about the head; Charles W. Wenner, head cut and legs bruised; J. R. Hanke, of Lewistown, severely injured about head and face; W. E. Stinger, West Fairview, Pa., slight injuries.

Taney County Prisoners Released.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 16.—The two Taney county prisoners held here have been released by Sheriff Day, who discredits Milton Everett's story as the bombastic dreams of a whisky crazed man. George Friend, Everett's brother-in-law, expressed perfect willingness to go to Taney county and face the charges made by Everett, who is said to have been half crazy from drink for weeks past.

Cherokee-Creek Quarantine.

DENISON, Tex., May 16.—The quarantine of the Cherokee and Creek nations against the infected cattle districts of Texas went into effect at midnight Saturday. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway will receive live stock conditionally until the quarantine is declared off.

THE CONFERENCE EXCURSION.

Seventeen Coaches Took the Party From Omaha to Lincoln—What Was Done.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 16.—The Methodist conference excursion train consisting of seventeen coaches left Omaha at 9 a. m. Saturday for Lincoln. Notwithstanding the rain the trip was a pleasant one. The distinguished men of the conference were mostly aboard, including Bishops Bowman, Newman, Warren, Fowler, Foss, Walden, Dr. Buckley, Dr. Lanahan, Dr. Hunt and other magnates of the body helped to make the trip a feast of conversation all the way.

The delegates and visitors were royally entertained by the citizens of Lincoln. The train arrived at Lincoln at 11 o'clock, and was met by a large delegation of the Wesleyan university. The entire party, consisting of 1,000 people, was escorted on foot to the Lansing opera house where the following programme was observed:

Presentation of the conference to the mayor of Lincoln—Rev. C. F. Creighton, D.D. Responses—Rev. J. A. Hamilton, D.D., Boston; Hon. William Lawrence, Ohio.

Welcome to the capital city—Hon. James E. Boyd, governor of Nebraska.

Responses—Rev. Frank M. Bristol, Chicago, Ill.; Hon. John P. Rieckart, lieutenant-governor of Montana.

Welcome by the churches and pastors of Lincoln—Rev. C. C. Lashy, D.D.

Response—Rev. Charles M. Grandison, North Carolina.

Welcome on behalf of the women of Lincoln—Mrs. Angie F. Newman.

Response—Hon. J. H. Murray, Pennsylvania.

Welcome on behalf of the educational institutions of Lincoln—Hon. James H. Canfield, chancellor of the University of Nebraska.

Response—Bishop Henry Warren, of Denver.

The opera house was filled with an appreciative audience numbering fully 2,500 persons. The various addresses were happily delivered and heartily applauded. Col. E. F. Shepard, of New York, the bishops of the church, the city and state officials and many prominent men were upon the stage.

After the programme at the opera house the distinguished visitors were escorted to the hotels and homes of the city for dinner. After dinner the party drove about the city in carriages, taking in the state house, the Wesleyan university and other points of interest in and about the city.

OMAHA, Neb., May 16.—The Methodist conference excursion train returned to Omaha at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening. The delegates were well pleased with the trip.

A mass meeting was held in Exposition hall Saturday night in the interest of the educational work of the church in the south. Bishop Mallalieu, Bishop Joyce, Dr. Grandison and other popular speakers addressed the audience.

Ibernians Elect Officers.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—The national convention of the Ancient Order of Ibernians elected the following officers Saturday, and adjourned to meet in Omaha, Neb., in 1894: Maurice F. Wilber, national delegate; E. J. Slatery, secretary; F. J. Dundon, treasurer. National directors—T. J. O'Connor, of Georgia; J. M. Clark, of Wisconsin; John P. Murphy, of Connecticut; T. J. O'Brien, of Canada; Ed Sweeney, of Ohio. On motion the following trustees of the endowment fund were appointed: Bishop Foley, of Detroit, national chaplain of the order; Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, and the national delegate elect.

The House on Saturday.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Mr. Meredith, of Virginia, announced the death of Senator Barbour, and after the adoption of appropriate resolutions the speaker appointed the following committee to attend the funeral. Messrs. Meredith, Holman, Wilson of West Virginia, Henderson of North Carolina, Hemphill, Blount, Compton, O'Ferrall, Farmer, Payne and Crough, and the house then, as a mark of respect to the deceased, adjourned.

The Little Girl Died.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 16.—Maggie Dixie, the five-year-old white girl outraged by the negro, Henry James, who was hanged by a mob at 2 o'clock Saturday morning at the corner of Fifth and Main street, died of the effects of her injuries received an hour after the hanging occurred.

The Man With Sixty Wives.

Parsons, Have Their Home Brightened.Ten years ago George W. Allen, of General Auditor Pollock's office, and his wife stood before the hy-menal altar and heard the blessed words that bound them in holy wedlock, since which time none but their intimate friends know of the almost perfect happiness in which the couple have lived. Despite their otherwise contented and happy state, there was yet something lacking to crown the success of the union, a tie to link in even more fond embrace the happy union of these two congenial spirits. Nine years oflife in Missouri did not bring about the long cherished wish of the devoted couple, but a residence of less than one year in Kansas, under the inspiring and ennobling influences of our glorious climate, we find the couple's fondest hopes realized and their union blessed with a tie of all ties, a son and heir, who made his appearance Friday evening. May he live to prove a blessing to his parents, who in turn will ever have cause to look back to the day, with feelings of deepest pleasure, when Kansas became their home.—Par- is Samuel Foreman.Among the pioneer citizens of Greensburg, Ind., is Samuel Foreman, who is proud of the fact that he is the oldest Odd Fellow west of the Allegheny mountains, says the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. For sixty-two years he has been an ardent member of the order, has fought its battles and forced its interests forward, until to-day he sees it pre-eminent in the land.Mr. Foreman was born in Baltimore, Md., November 30, 1810, and on February 7, 1832, was initiated in the order, joining Marion Lodge, No. 8, of Baltimore. As is well known, Baltimore was the first home of Odd Fellowship in America, and Marion Lodge was the eighth organized in the United States. In April, 1832, he assisted in the organization of the Grand lodge of Maryland, which afterward became the sovereign grand lodge. In 1837 he came west, locating first at Aurora, Ind., and shortly after in Greensburg, and assisted in organizing the grand lodge of Indiana, which in those days was held in Madison.Mr. Foreman, though 82 years of age, is spry on his feet, enjoys good health and appears to be good for many more years of life. His aged wife is still living, and takes great pride in the distinction her husband enjoys. Mr. Foreman's record as a member of the I. O. O.

F. is not guess work, but is verified by the records of the sovereign lodge.PERSONALS.Secretary Langhorne came in the Peace.Judge Rauck had a long list of names presented to him on the slate this morning.Oscar Miner, a colored urchin 15 years of age, was up on a charge of being drunk. Judge Rauck thought it a good time to administer a wholesome lesson so fined him $5 and sent him to the dungeon dark.A. McLacy and A. S. Skinner for imbibing too much bourbon, got $5 each.Frank and Bart Jackson, Jas.

Ellis, Julius Hoffman, Ed. Joslin and Pete Long were charged with disturbing the peace by fighting. It seems Bart Jackson got into a dispute with three of these parties who are stone-cutters and came to blows. Frank Jackson came to his brothers' rescue and in the melee one of the stone-cutters came in contact with Frank's fist and sought mother earth or rather the pavement. All interested in the fight were arrested and their case was continued until Friday morning, May 20th.Sherman Greenstreet and Dee Morrison got into an altercation over 25 cents yesterday morning and came to blows. Morrison was fined $7 this morning and the case against Greenstreet dismissed, as theevidence showed Morrison was to blame for the trouble.Mandy Givens, S. Jackson and wife, Jennie Jackson, were charged with disturbing the peace of Frank Walker. The charge against Mandy Givens was dismissed and she was turned over to the state.The Jacksons case was continued until Thursday, May 19th.A HIGH OLD TIME.*A Street-Car Fight Furnishes a Lively Spectacle on Ohio Street Yesterday.Yesterday evening about 7 o'clock a row was started on the southbound Forrest park car that resulted in a terrible lot of noise before the affair was ended.Jennie Jackson and Amanda Givens, both colored, were on the "trailer," and while passing between Seventh and Broadway on Ohio, the Jackson woman saw someone on the street with whom she wanted to speak. She attempted to get off the car, and in doing so fell heavily to the street, stunning her considerably. The conductor claims that the bell was not rung.The girl got on the car again, and shortly afterwards her husband, S.
Jackson, got on. He objected to paying fare to Conductor Settles on account of the accident. Conductor Walker shortly after relieved Mr. Settles and went back into the car to collect the fare.A rumus commenced and, when Sixteenth street was reached, both men were on the ground. Jackson is said to have started at Walker, when the latter struck at him with the fare register. The women then came to the front and the melee became general. A number of blows were passed and several scratches.On the return of the car, Amanda Givens still had her ire up and made the air lurid with profanity.
She stood on the track and compelled the car to come to a standstill. Some one finally dragged her from the track, when she commenced throwing rocks and succeeded in breaking two car windows.The peace disturbers were arrested, and Jackson and his wife appeared in police court this morning.
The case was continued until tomorrow.Amanda Givens was arrested upon a state warrant for felonious assault upon J. B. Elliott, a passenger upon the car. She was before Justice Blair this morning, and had her case continued until to-morrow at 2 o'clock. In default of a $200 bond, she went to jail.Muddy Bridge Goes Down.The Muddy bridge succumbed to the inevitable last Saturday night and went down. The east pier which was built of stone had been undermined by the water and fell in, letting the bridge settle quite a distance. Fortunately, however, it has not fallen into the stream.The bridge was built several years ago at a cost of over $4,000.
It seems that the foundation of the fallen pier was not placed deep enough, the stream having since become much deeper. County Surveyor Slavin was unable to do anything during the extreme high water in the way of saving the structure.Council To-Night.Mayor Stevens is absent in Texas to-day and Councilman Bell Hutchinson will occupy the chair to-night as acting mayor.The Third street question will come up and a strong effort be made to have the ordinance passed. Improved Telford will doubtless be selected as the kind of street wanted.An ordinance will also be passed for the paving of the alley running east and west in the block bounded by Ohio and Osage and Second and Third streets.Bids will also be opened for the paving of Seventh street.Has Bumps on His Head.A Missouri Pacific switchman who was evidently hunting trouble made a visit last Saturday night to the disreputable quarters near the gas works. He got mixed up with a number of negroes and almost had his head beaten off.He was thumped with rocks until he was covered with blood which to-day can be seen on the fence and sidewalk.People who go hunting trouble in tough places generally get the worst of it.Stuck in the Mud.The continued rains have put the roads in a very bad condition.
Richard Cavanaugh, the contractor, started four four-horse wagons to the Georgetown quarry for rock for the Hoffman building this morning, but found the roads impassable and was compelled to return to the city.
This should add renewed vigor to the macadamizing of country roads.Money! Money!You can save money by calling Vault on Sixth Street.Last Saturday afternoon a young man at a residence on East Sixth street was opening the sewer that led from the vaults of the water closet. He was using a long pole for the purpose and struck what he thought to be a bundle of rags.A closer investigation and a withdrawal of the object from the vault proved it to be a child. No clothing was upon it and decomposition had taken place to a repulsive extent.Officials were notified and the body turned over to the coroner and left at Farnham & Collins' undertaking establishment.It is a negro child as far as can be seen, but its unnatural parent is unknown. A number of weeks ago a young negro woman named Fannie York was arrested and taken before the grand jury for disposing of her illegitimate child. Nothing could be proved against her, as the child could not be found, and she was discharged.About the time of her arrest she was employed as a domestic in a family whose property adjoins that of the family upon whose premises the dead child was found.At 2 o'clock Coroner Muehl called a jury to pass upon the case.

He decided from examination that the child was full term and viable.
It was thought, however, that it had never breathed. Fannie York, the colored girl suspected, was put under cross examination and, at the time of going to press, had not been discharged.They are Very Sure.The Parsons Sun is very authoritative in its remarks concerning the permanence of the general offices at that place. Whether or not it overlooks the competition of the road into St. Louis and the probable changes at that time. Here is what it says:"For the benefit of our readers and the citizens of Parsons, the Sun can state that so far as the future management of the M., K. & T. railroad company and Parsons are concerned our people have nothing to fear from that quarter. The general offices of the company have been located here and here they will remain, no matter who may succeed Col. Cross."Another "Katy" Extension.The M., K. & T. is preparing to run an extension from Waco to the pine forests in east Texas. The resources of this lumber territory are immense, but the "Katy" is somewhat handicapped at present by being compelled to ship from Trinity over the I. & G. N. to the main line. The new extension will connect at Trinity.Repairing the Wires.L. A. Moore with a force of men
